LEADERSHIP Jackson County is a program designed to develop and enhance community leadership. Participants from diverse backgrounds will gain expanded knowledge of our community, develop relationships and acquire skills in order to assure a more active and effective volunteer role in addressing community needs.

NOTE: (1) Due to the volume of applications expected, all information must be submitted on the application form. (2) All of the class positions are open each year, as there are none reserved or guaranteed. (3) All positions are filled on an equal opportunity basis. There are limited scholarships potentially available, which will be filled solely from applicants sponsored by non-profit or governmental agencies.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Please type or print application. While applications are confidential, the information submitted by successful applicants will be used by LEADERSHIP in printed materials on all class members. Please provide sufficient information for LEADERSHIP to make a determination of your eligibility based on your skills, professional experience and community involvement. To ensure that those selected reflect the diversity of the community, you are asked to specify your gender, race, and/or ethnicity. All questions are optional.

Will you require financial assistance to participate in the program? _____ Yes _____ No

If YES, and if you are selected, a representative of LEADERSHIP will contact you about your financial arrangement. There are limited scholarships available from LEADERSHIP which are filled solely from applicants sponsored by non-profit or governmental agencies. You are therefore encouraged to seek a sponsor if your employer is not paying the tuition, since scholarship funds are very limited.

Photograph

A good quality photograph (head & shoulder) must be submitted with application. Photographs will be used for publicity purposes and may not be returned.

Commitment

To graduate from LEADERSHIP Jackson County, a participant is expected to attend a minimum of eight of the ten monthly sessions.

Orientation Retreat - Mandatory overnight stay from 5:00 p.m. in Sept. and until 3:00 pm the next day.
Monthly Sessions - One full weekday each month (2nd Thursday) October through May Overnight trip to Montgomery – to be arranged; 2 working days
Graduation – to be arranged

I understand the purposes of the LEADERSHIP Jackson County program, and if I am selected, I will devote the time and resources necessary to complete the program. Even though emergencies do arise, I know that any participant, who has not met the minimum attendance requirement for whatever reason, may be dropped from the program and no portion of the tuition shall be refunded. I understand the above commitments and agree in signing this application to be bound by them.

LEADERSHIP - Jackson County, sponsored by the Jackson County Extension System/Greater Jackson County Chamber of Commerce/Jackson County Economic Development Authority, is a program designed to develop and enhance community leadership. Participants from diverse backgrounds will gain expanded knowledge of our community, develop relationships and acquire skills in order to assume a more active and effective volunteer role in addressing community needs. This is a program designed for men and women interested in the future of Jackson County.

Beginning in the fall, monthly sessions will be offered by a faculty of experienced community leaders and recognized professionals. A coherent course of study has been designed which, during a ten-month period will cover the major components of community life: the legal, health and educational systems, human services, the economic and government environments and quality of life.

A selection committee will choose participants for the program based on completed application and reference forms which must be returned by September 1. Preference will be given to candidates who, in addition to their potential for leadership, would contribute to the overall diversity and strength of the class, and who share the following characteristic: demonstrated ability to achieve personal commitment to the future of Jackson County.
